End of Lease Cleaning Checklist

A thorough end of the lease cleaning is necessary to get your bond money back. The purpose of end of lease cleaning is for you to leave the rented house in a state you found it when it was leased out to you. Leaving your rented property clean and shining will get your bond money back faster and even a good referral from your house owner. End of lease cleaning gets easier as most of the furniture are already moved and thus out of the way.

An end of lease checklist is just the right tool to attack the mission and make the cleaning more manageable. We have attached below a checklist which might come in handy for you.
